

Act Out Performing Arts Covid-19 Guidelines

Although restrictions have now been lifted in England, Act Out Performing Arts will continue to have policies in place to protect our students and staff.

Act Out Performing Arts has completed a Risk Assessment to reduce the risk of transmission of Covid-19. This is available on request.

All teachers and students must adhere to current government guidelines relating to Covid-19, and follow any other guidance provided by Act Out Performing Arts or the venue.

- Teachers and students with symptoms of COVID-19 are under no obligation to attend classes, especially if they have close contact with a high risk person.
- Teachers are required to do regular LFT tests throughout the term.

Managing Capacity, Social Distancing & Hygiene

- Students and teachers will be reminded to regularly wash their hands.
- We are using large, well-ventilated rooms, to promote easy distancing
- All attendees must have booked via Class4Kids
- Parents are not permitted to enter the building

What to Expect

- Sign-in will open 15 minutes before class start time*, you will be required to wait outside the venue prior to the class
- *Lamda students – please arrive 5 minutes before class start time, you may be required to wait outside the venue prior to the class
- Parents are not permitted to enter the building
- Teachers will oversee admittance of the students to the venue and outline any rules as part of the class
- Main School Students will be dismissed at allocated doors, (which will be made clear in class info,) and handed individually to a parent. Senior students' dismissal will be overseen, but students can leave independent of a parent
